Hi Everyone,

I think this is a very good draft. I made a few edits (and I tried to put comments where I did, but I might have missed a comma or period somewhere) in the attached version, I added some comments and questions, and I highlighted the

Ex. 5 AC/AWP

As I told Jacquie, I have an all day training tomorrow. Thus, I can be available from 8:00 A.M. to 8:20 A.M. and then I have to run to the training. I will try to occasionally check my e-mail during the training, but I don't want to check it too much because I want to learn something!

Finally, thank you to everyone for working so hard on this today. Great job!

Have a good night,
Jenny

Looks great, Jacquie. The only minor edit I saw was that there is a paragraph 69, but there is no text (so let's delete that hanging number in the next version).

Hi team – attached is the version with our edits combined. I'm sending a clean copy because the edits are getting confusing to follow. Please take a look at the technical portions, which I tweaked from what Karen sent. Let's talk tomorrow. I've got meetings all morning, but I'm available at 8 am central time if we want to talk then. Thanks-Jacquie
